Frage (public)

Why am I asked to provide payment information during the 30-day free trial period?

Lösung (public)

The payment information already provided during the trial period serves the following purposes:

- Many customers continue to use magnalister after the trial period. This way, stock or price synchronization can be maintained without interruption.
- Some customers pay us to set up magnalister for them. For this purpose, the stored payment information is required.
- We verify your identity and protect you from theft and fraud. As a partner of Mastercard and Visa, we maintain the most modern security standards.

In case you would like to try magnalister free of charge for 30-days without providing your payment information, please contact our support team at (support [at] magnalister.com).

We also recommend making an appointment for an on-screen training (duration approx. 30-60 minutes).
To make your appointment, please email support [at] magnalister.com.
